

National Safe Place Week 2009 Celebrated in Downtown Phoenix

Local Non-profits and Youth Celebrated National Safe Place Week
Friday, March 20th at the Phoenix Drop in Gallery (917 N. 5th Street)

Photo Sarah Ontiveros

Several non-profit organizations, including Peer Solutions, 1n10, Teen Lifeline and Success4Kids celebrated National Safe Place Week (March 15-21) by participating in a community awareness fair and concert organized by Tumbleweed Center For Youth Development's Safe Place program at Tumbleweed's Drop in Gallery near 5th and Roosevelt streets in downtown Phoenix. Karlie Hustle of Power 98.3 radio emceed the event and provided music along with local bands Boneater and 10secondRule. The QuikTrip Corporation supplied refreshments, and Munro Realty donated contest prizes. Activities included face painting, dancing, hula-hoop and dance contests.

Local Safe Place Contact Info.

Tumbleweed Center For Youth
Development
1419 N. 3rd Street, Suite 102
Phoenix, AZ 85004

Phone: 602-271-9904
Fax: 602-271-0240
E-mail: pcombs@tumbleweed.org

Hip-to-hip action during the Hula-Hoop Contest; although, one contestant turned his nose up at the competition (below).

Local band Boneater performs

Arizona Federal Credit Union branches and all QuikTrip convenience stores are Safe Place locations where youth can access immediate help in a crisis situa-

